

C-PEC, BIRD - Seminar of Stakeholders-2016-17-Chhattisgarh State - conducted at Raipur on 22 May 2017

Centre for Professional Excellence in Cooperatives (C-PEC) of BIRD, Lucknow organized a seminar on Professionalization of Cooperative Institutions in collaboration with NABARD Chhattisgarh Regional Office on 22 May 2017 for the stakeholders of State of Chhattisgarh.

The seminar was organised to disseminate the information on C-PEC's initiatives to pursue the objective of excellence in Cooperatives and also on other issues of importance relating to professionalization of cooperatives in the state.

The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. R. M. Kummur CGM, NABARD, Chhattisgarh RO. Dr D.V. Deshpande, Director, BIRD delivered the key note address wherein he highlighted the various initiatives taken by BIRD and especially by C-PEC for augmenting the capacity of human resources of cooperatives. Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Chhattisgarh state; Secretary, Dept. of Cooperation, GoCG; Officials from the DCCBs Raipur, Durg, Ambikapur and Jagdalpur and officials from C-PEC, BIRD and from Chhattisgarh RO, Raipur also participated in the seminar. A few PACS of the state were also represented by their Board of Directors.

Panel discussions on important issues like conduct of Board Meetings, Internal Checks and Control; Credit Appraisal, viability and on Investment were also held.

A few photographs of the seminar are as under:

Dr. DV Deshpande, Director, BIRD, Lucknow addressing the participants

Dr. RM Kummur, CGM, NABARD, Chhattishgarh RO addressing participants of the Seminar

Participants of the Seminar

Another view of the participants of the Seminar